

ILYA REKHTER

A first-generation immigrant from Russia and Indiana University grad, Ilya is also the founder of DoubleMap, which provides transit software to clients worldwide. In 2014, DoubleMap was awarded TechPoint Mira awards for 'Startup' and 'Mobile Tech of the Year,' while Ilya was an Indianapolis Business Journal '40 under 40' selection. Ilya also serves on the board for the Tech Point Foundation for Youth, volunteers through Project Ten, and coaches youth basketball.

HENRY MESTETSKY

Henry Mestetsky is an attorney with the Indianapolis firm of Katz & Korin, PC who focuses on bankruptcy, creditors' rights, landlord-tenant law, and general business litigation. He double-majored in accounting and finance at IUPUI and attended the IU Maurer School of Law in Bloomington. He was born in Kiev, Ukraine and came to the United States with his family at the age of nine. Henry attended the Indianapolis Russian School throughout his childhood. Aside from his involvement with the Russian-speaking community, Henry is active in several other civic organizations and not-for-profit boards.

ANASTASIA KLAUZ

As both a past student and volunteer of Indianapolis Russian School, Anastasia has participated in school activities in various capacities throughout the years. With a graduate degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from Northwestern University, Anastasia's knowledge in working with relationships proves to be a valuable asset for our ever-growing and changing organization. She currently works with young children and their families in a school setting; an environment she grew to know and love in part by attending Russian School as a young child.
